Every day another sofa. That's possible with back cushions in various heights, widths and colours. With the QUOTE sofa, you can make all kinds of interesting combinations with the loosely upholstered cushions.

And of course we also have we a matching ottoman.

‘Life in other cultures turns your outlook and fixed habits upside down and that is important’

CUNO FROMMHERZ

Cuno Frommherz, 54, lives in Burgdorf in Switzerland, a small town in the canton of Bern. He works for various major international furniture brands. He designed the Quote sofa for Pode. For him, Pode is more like a playground – the brand operates fewer fixed rules than do others. Second-generation Dutch Design is how he describes it. It allows for inspiration.

“I am mostly inspired by meeting everyday life head-on with my eyes open. That involves little things. I live in the middle of the countryside, and for me that is an important source of inspiration. That is where you find the prettiest shapes. Take a really good look at a bird feather, and you will see what I mean.

I also enjoy going on long journeys to Asia – to India, Tibet, China, Nepal. Life in other cultures turns your outlook and fixed habits upside down, and that is important. And travelling in itself is very enriching too. It is not the case that travel experiences are literally made visible in your designs. It is much more a means of making you aware of your day-to-day patterns and habits. That has an inspiring effect and opens up new ideas.”
